

Nov 29, 1898	Union Land Company Buys Land on Treat and Webster Island	Original Deed
1930	Union Land Company stops filing Annual Reports with Secretary of State	Link
1975	Sewer System Installed
1993	First question of ownership of Lot 189 discussed with City representatives	Proposal
Jul 21, 2000	Mitchell purchase property. Lots 190 and 188
2012 - 2014	Removal of Old Town and Veazie Dams	Link
Mar 15, 2017	City offers Letter of Perpetuity to Mitchell	Letter
Mar 20, 2017	First proposal for development of a part of Lot 189 made to City Council	Proposal
Mar 20, 2017	First City Council discussion of Lot 189	Council Meeting
Mar 30, 2017	The Penobscot Times article.	Article
Apr 17, 2017	Original community support for development of Lot 189	Support
May 1, 2017	Second meeting with City Council. Council votes to not allow development.	Council Meeting
Mar 6, 2018	Mitchell makes legal claim to a portion of Lot 189.	First legal claim filed with Court
Feb 19, 2019	Offer of quit claim by City on portion of land.	Link
Apr 1, 2019	"Mr. Mitchell wants to own all the property."	Link
May 19, 2019	City Council goes into executive session to discuss how to address Mitchell's legal claim.	Link
Aug 19, 2019	City condemns Lot 189 and claims possession by the use of eminent domain.	Council Meeting
Nov 1, 2019	Lawyer for the City claims that sufficient notice was provided to the public because it was on the Council agenda.	Document Paragraphs 8 & 9
Dec 29, 2019	Notice of seizure served on Mitchell.	Link
Jan 16, 2020	Public Notice which lists property landowners who abut Lot 189.	Penobscot Times
Feb 3, 2020	Concerned citizens approach City Council Meeting	Council Meeting
Feb 7, 2020	City representatives meet with some abutting landowners. Mitchell is specifically not allowed to attend this meeting.
Feb 18, 2020	City manager advises City Council to wait until after legal process is completed.	Council Meeting
Mar 10, 2020	Bangor Daily News Opinion Piece	Link